

10 October 2017

BY E-MAIL

Nelson Mandela University

attention: Prof Govindjee

e-mail: Avinash.Govindjee@mandela.ac.za

Dear Avinash

ARTICLED CLERK FOR 2018

1. Solomonholmes has established itself as one of the leading employment law advisors to corporate South Africa. The firm is particularly active within the mining sector and services some of the largest mining houses in the country. The firm continues to attract leading multinational firms wishing to invest in the country.
2. The firm has built expertise in providing practical and efficient professional advice on all aspects of employment law to large unionised employers. As a boutique specialist firm only dealing with employment law Solomonholmes is able to meet and exceed the services provided by our larger competitors.
3. We are currently looking for a student in his/her final year of his/her law degree (preferably a Masters degree) and who has a particular interest in specializing in employment law to apply for articles of clerkship at our firm.
4. If a student is interested in serving articles at our firm we would appreciate it if he/she would e-mail his/her curriculum vitae to info@solomonholmes.co.za by 15 November 2017.
5. Requirements for consideration:
 - 5.1. Must be a previously disadvantaged individual;

5.2. South African citizen or permanent resident; and

5.3. Expected to complete a LLB / LLM by the year articles commence.

6. We require the following to accompany the application:

6.1. Academic transcript of LLB degree up to and including November in the last completed year of study;

6.2. Academic transcript of any undergraduate qualification (and any other relevant qualification);

6.3. Matric certificate; and

6.4. Copy of ID.

7. Please visit our website at: www.solomonholmes.co.za should you require further information about our firm.

8. We would appreciate it if you would pass this information to any interested student.

Yours faithfully

[Sent electronically without a signature.]

SOLOMONHOLMES
per: Theresa Achada